The Trouble in the Affairs of the Warehouse and Security Company—Fatal Fall of a Balcony—Suits Against the Erie.

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—It appears that the trouble in the New York Warehouse and Security Company, arose from relations with two of its Directors, Francis Skiddy, importer of No. 101 Wall street, and Shepherd Gandy, of No. 60 Wall street, both heavy sugar importers. They were directors of the New York Warehouse and Security Company, and also directors of Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railway Company now in course of construction. They had invested so heavily in this road and elsewhere that their large resources and excellent credit could not carry them through, and they therefore obtained loans from the Security Company on stock and bonds from the latter and other corporations. The Warehouse and Security Company, however, had a large amount of paper in circulation which was about mature, and unless some of the loans which it had made to Skiddy and Gandy were taken up they could not meet their obligations. Frequent consultations were had, but without satisfactory result as the disordered condition of the money market and the fact that Kansas, Missouri and Texas securities were not negotiable in Wall street, but precluded making loans in other and less partial quarters. A meeting of the Directors had therefore been called yesterday morning, and it was resolved to suspend temporarily and call a meeting of the creditors on Thursday to take action in the matter. Francis Skiddy is the head of the firm of Skiddy Minford & Co., of No. 101 Wall street who, are among the heaviest importers of sugars in this city. Mr. Skiddy has been identified with steamboat, Railroad and other interests for many years, and has always borne a good name for financial strength. Shepherd Gandy is a member of the sugar firm of Shepherd Gandy & Co., of No. 60 Wall street. Neither of these houses have suspended as yet.

While the 71st regiment was parading through 4th street at Williamsburg, this morning, a balcony crowded with spectators suddenly broke down, and all were precipitated to the side-walk. One person was killed and fifteen more or less severely injured.

It is stated that a number of suits instituted by Jay Gould will soon be brought against the Erie Railroad company, and the Directors personally, for alleged illegal acts done in connection with the recent declaration of dividends.

Gaskins and Jesse Lott, respectable citizens of Coffee county, were brought here last night by a deputy marshal, charged with assaulting the postmaster, and attempting to rob the postoffice at Douglass. A HASTY MARRIAGE.—In a Salt Lake City court, recently, during the trial of perjury case, a small party, consisting of two ladies and three men, bustled into the court-room. The noise of their entrance caused a momentary suspension of proceedings, when one of the ladies whispered something to the judge at the same time handing him a slip of paper. His honor seemed to understand what was needed, and after asking two brief questions said aloud, "Then, by virtue and authority of my office, as magistrate, I pronounce you man and wife. Come to-morrow for your certificate. Go on with your testimony, Mr. Stevens," and before the spectators had discovered that a marriage ceremony had been performed the case was resumed, and the bridal party retired as expeditiously as they had entered.

An ingenious Illinoisan has just invented a most useful appliance to canal boats, which will facilitate their movements greatly, and prevent disturbing the banks. The invention may be called shovels, there being two on each side of the boat. They work on hinges, so as to shut by moving back, and open by moving forward. They have strong propelling power when set in motion, and can be turned by hand or by steam.

That "honesty is the best policy" may be exemplified by the following little incident: A man at Belmont, Mo., sold to a mill owner a saw log which proved to be hollow. As he sold it for a log he voluntarily went and gave back the price, and, hauling it to his own yard, chopped it up for firewood. In this operation he found ten $5 gold pieces which somebody had secreted in it.

We have good reason for saying that the Board of City Commissioners will at their next meeting, on the last Wednesday in this month, exempt from city taxation for a term of years capital engaged in the manufacture of cotton and woolen goods.

Jane Crocker and Eliza Stevens, white, and Annie Yates, colored, were sent to jail yesterday morning by Mayor Whitaker for fighting and keeping a disorderly house in that romantic quarter of the city, known to the ungodly as Hell's-half-acre, in default of $200 bail each.

THE CARTER-WOODFIN LIBEL SUIT ENDED.—Saturday last in the McDowell county Superior Court, this celebrated suit had its end. After long and learned argument by counsel on both sides, the jury rendered a verdict acquitting Mr. Carter on the ground of privilege. This verdict does not reflect on Mr. Woodfin, as they say that the charges published by Mr. Carter in his paper were not true in fact, but Mr. Carter believed them to be at the time of publication.

MAYOR WHITAKER AND THE LATE OFFICIAL LAWLESSNESS IN THIS CITY.—In the conclusion of our article Sunday morning concerning the late forcible removal of Miss Luey Powell from the residence of Capt. J. P. Adams, we said:

"The part taken by the negro procuress, and the "wealthy man," to destroy the character of an innocent poor girl is an outrage of the most heinous character; but when the officers of the law, the guardians of the honor and dignity of a high-toned, moral city, not only can wink at but aid and abet in a crime which should be the most disgraceful in the calendar of crimes, murder not excepted, then a whole public is outraged and that public should demand an investigation. This 'wealthy man' may have used his money very judiciously for the consumation of his purpose. Let us have the investigation."

It is thought by some that this clause of the article is meant to reflect directly upon Mayor Whitaker inasmuch as he did not prevent this outrage. It was meant to reflect only upon those who may have acted in the matter in so far as to assist the woman who endeavored to force the girl from the protection of those with whom she was living at the time, whether that was done either with or without the knowledge of the facts before them. We have the assurance of others than the Mayor, who were present at the Mayor's office when the negro woman—the mother or "procuress" whichever she may be—applied to the Mayor for assistance in "recovering her child," that he told her that it was not in his province to help her, as jurisdiction in matters of that kind belonged to others than himself; that he remarked that Policeman Lane, colored, then present, could assist her in his individual capacity if he thought fit; that the Mayor did not investigate the case. Mayor W. asserts that it is not unfrequent that similar applications are made to him, but that as he is not the proper officer to take charge of these matters, he never investigates them.

These being the facts, we believe the Mayor has not been guilty of any intentional wrong, and therefore the article cannot refer to him. But we do apply our comments to the policeman, or to any official, who, either in his official or individual capacity, did assist in removing the girl from the protection of Mr. and Mrs. Adams, and we again claim that the conduct of the Policeman is deserving of the most severe punishment, whether the girl is or is not the daughter of the woman who sought to degrade her, as such lawlessness, if allowed, would make society in our midst insecure, and should receive a check at once.

THE KITTRELL'S BALL.—Major Blacknall, the gentlemanly proprietor of Kittrell's Springs, writes us that we are in error in stating that the ball at that place on the 18th, will be the "closing" ball of the season. The ball will certainly come off on the 18th, continuing through the evening of the 19th instant, but the Springs will be kept open until frost or after the State Fair. There is a good crowd at Kittrell's now, and there may be another ball after the one announced.

THE SNUBBING OF THE PRESIDENT.—Some scribbler, writing from Greensboro, Sept. 3, to the Washington (D. C.) Republican, under the nome de plume of "Felix," concerning the approaching Fair, gets off the following:

"Agricultural fairs are for a distinct and well understood purpose, and should not be made the occasion where superannuated political hacks shall be granted opportunities to make political speeches and deal in vituperation of the Administration. If General Grant was a Democrat he would have been officially invited to both the Virginia and North Carolina fairs, but because he is otherwise, politically speaking, notwithstanding he is President of the whole country, and there are certain courtesies and civilization that should always be extended to him, these gentlemanly political managers prefer to show their smartness and rebellic feelings by, as they call it, "snubbing the President."

If Hon. Thomas M. Holt, president of N. C. A. A., who is a sagacious business man, not fettered by political feelings, should invite his Excellency the President, which he has no doubt done, to attend our forthcoming fair, and assure him that his presence would be a source of pleasure to the citizens of the State, and that the occasion was in the interest of agriculture and the development of the resources of the State, and not a gathering for political purposes, no doubt but what the President would make it convenient to attend."

If "Felix" had taken pains to inform himself whereof he wrote, he probably would not have been guilty of such misrepresentation. President Grant has not only been invited to attend the coming State Fair, but was also the recipient of an invitation to attend one of last year.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT TO THE MEMORY OF THE HON. D. M. BARRINGER.—At a meeting of the Democratic Central Executive Committee, held yesterday afternoon the following preamble and resolutions of respect to the memory of the late Hon. D. M. Barringer were adopted:

WHEREAS, The Executive Committee of the Conservative-Democratic party of North Carolina have heard with deep regret of the death of their late esteemed Chairman, Hon. D. M. Baringer, and it is becoming that they should give expression to their appreciation of his high personal and official character, therefore;

Resolved, That in the death of Mr. Barringer, our country has lost a useful, wise, patriotic citizen; North Carolina a son, she has often and [illegible] honored, and the party of which he was the representative head in this State, a member distinguished for coolness of judgement, wisdom in council and purity of motive, and who as a politician, was so eminent for uniform courtesy and politeness that his kindness of heart was recognized even by political opponents and disarmed all the shafts of hostile criticism.

Resolved, That the Secretary be directed to spread these resolutions on his minutes and transport a copy to the family of the deceased.

Resolved, That copies be also furnished for publication to the Conservative press of the city, with the request that the other Conservative papers of the State copy the same.

After the adoption of the resolutions, General W. R. Cox was elected Chairman of the Committee to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Barringer. Dr. R. B. Haywood presided at the meeting.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.—At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the North Carolina Railroad Company held at Raleigh, N. C., September 3rd, 1873, the following resolutions were adopted, viz:

WHEREAS, Since the last meeting of the Board of Directors of the N. C. R. R. Company, Col. John I Shaver has died. Therefore,

Resolved 1*st*. That by his death, we have been deprived of a good citizen, and an honored and valuable Director of our road.

Resolved 2*nd*. That as a Board, we will cherish his memory and imitate his fidelity.

Resolved 3*rd*. That as a tribute of respect to the deceased these resolutions be spread upon our journal.

Resolved 4*th*. That the Secretary of the Company be directed to furnish a copy of the resolutions to the family of the deceased.

VALUABLE LAND FOR SALE.—Mr. N. B. Williams advertises this morning for sale 180 acres of land, highly improved, with comfortable dwelling and other improvements upon it. This land is located four miles east of Raleigh. Here is an opportunity to invest.

Laura Keene was so alarmingly ill last week at her residence in New York, that a priest was summoned, who administered to her the last rites of the Catholic church. She rallied, however, sufficiently to be removed to a quiet country residence, where a change of air, it is expected, would improve her health.

Narrow Escape of a Party of Ladies and Gentlemen from Drowning in Beaufort Harbor while Bathing—Daring and Bravery of Three Young Men.

Major Engelhard, Editor of the Wilmington Journal, who is sojourning at Beaufort with his family, in an interesting letter to his paper under date of the 5th instant, gives the following thrilling account of a bathing scene and its results, which occurred off Fort Macon last Thursday evening:

"The bath had been unusually pleasant. The very force with which we had been lifted up and tossed headlong toward the shore, had caused many to forget the dangers, and especially the strong under-current which carried us toward the inlet. When nearly all of the bathers had gone into the dressing rooms, three young gentlemen were still buffeting the angry waters. Now you would see them on the very crest of a monster wave, and then they would disappear in the clouds of spray into which it would break. Away off, two couples were rapidly drifting towards the rocks. These were Miss Lucy Guion, of Newbern, with Mr. R. W. Graham, of Charlotte, a son of the Hon. Wm. A. Graham, and Miss Mary Roberts, of Newbern, with Mr. W. B. Short, the eldest son of Mr. H. B. Short, of Waccamaw. The three young gentlemen just referred to had come ashore. These were Mr. H. B. Short, Jr. Mr. John D. Hughes, the son of Major John Hughes, of Newbern, and Master Edward B. Engelhard, of Wilmington.

"Seeing the danger into which these bathers were, and heeding their signals of distress, the three started in a full run to the rescue. Mr. Short and Master Englehard, together with Master E. E. G. Roberts, of Newbern, who was slightly in advance, rushed for Miss Guion and Mr. Graham, who were now being rapidly drawn into the terrible current which rushes by the rocks, and seized the young lady. A tremendous breaker sooned hurled Master Roberts, powerless and almost senseless, upon the rocks, rendering him incapable of giving any assistance. Master Engelhard, surrendering the young lady to Mr. Short, turned to the rescue of Mr. Graham. At this moment a receding wave bore Mr. Short and his now helpless charge, and Mr. Graham, who was also entirely exhausted, far out beyond their depth, and into the furious torrent which swept by the ledge of rocks toward the Inlet. Mr. Short's herculean strength enabled him to swim with the young lady. Taking advantage of the next wave, he made for the rocks, beyond which he was being borne, and succeeded in reaching them. Bearing the young lady in his arms, he climed to the top. No sooner had he gained the summit of the ledge than he was knocked down and separated from his helpless charge by a huge wave which swept entirely over them, but although badly bruised, he jumped quickly up, and again caught the young lady, and with much difficulty bore her to the shore. Mr. Hughes had rushed to the rescue of Miss Roberts and Mr. W. [illegible] beyond the ledge of rocks. Mr. Short gallantly supporting the young lady, but entirely unable, in his exhausted condition, to get her to shore, and each breaker rendering him less able to resist the force of its successor.

"At this juncture Mr. Hughes came to their rescue, seized them and was carried into this terrible current with them. The young lady, in her alarm, seized him around the neck and both went under together. In his struggle to free himself from her grasp, which rendered him powerless to aid her, they became separated. He seized her by the hair just as she was being carried into the Inlet, and swimming ashore with her bore her apparently lifeless form to a grassy mound just beyond the reach of the waves. Mr. Short, with a chivalric feeling worty of the Knights of the olden time, though all the time able to save himself, refused to leave the young lady whom he was unable, unaided, to bring to shore, preferring rather to perish with her than to see her consigned to a watery grave.

"In the mean time, and after the young ladies had been rescued, Master Engelhard was laboring faithfully to save Mr. Graham. In the excitement incident to the rescue of the young ladies, and the attention their condition required, those two had been overlooked. Mr. Graham was entirely exhausted and unable longer to swim or resist the force of the breakers. Master Engelhard had made one unsuccessful attempt to rescue him, and had been thrown with much force upon the rocks. Plunging again into the waves, he caught Mr. Graham and struggled with him until he was enabled to seize the rock. Unfortunately Mr. Graham had not the strength to hold on, and the next wave threw him across the ledge into the water beyond. Master Engelhard again plunged [illegible] and the second time brought him to the rocks, being now himself tired and exhausted.

"I have never witnessed a more wonderful escape from death, which must have been inevitable but for the coolness and bravery of those three young gentlemen who rescued the party from a watery grave."

THE DAILY NEWS.

JORDAN STONE, Managing Editor.
SAM'L T. WILLIAMS, Political Editor.

WEDNESDAY.....SEPTEMBER 10, 1873.

THE Milton Chronicle thinks the Editors of North Carolina drink less "spirits" than the Editors of any other State in the Union, "not excepting the puritan-behind-the-door-imbibers of Massachusetts."

We thought Massachusetts was the main liquor law State.

THE alacrity with which France has paid the instalments of the war indemnity to Germany is something wonderful. The last payment was made on Friday, and according to the conditions, the German soldiers will now evacuate the French territory.

THE election of the orator, CASTELAR, as President of the new Ministry in Spain, will probably be the signal for more active movements against the Carlists. It is said to be the purpose of the new President to crush out all forcible opposition, by calling into the service of the Government two hundred thousand men.

SOME of the Radical papers are complaining that President Grant has not been invited to our State Fair. But the President has been invited, and the complaints of these hyper-critical journals are therefore unfounded.

Whether he will attend or not, we are not informed. As he is fond of horse-racing, perhaps he will be here.

The Baltimore Gazette.

It affords us sincere gratification to learn that this able Southern journal is constantly growing in public favor. It deserves a large circulation in North Carolina. Our people should bestow their patronage on this high-toned and excellent newspaper. It is reliable, sensible, and true to the South. It is superior in many respects to more pretentious journals.

FROM the latest count of delegates, it appears that BUTLER, although he was ahead on the first stretch, is gradually losing ground, and it now seems pretty well determined that WASHBURN will win the race for the Gubernatorial nomination in Massachusetts.

It was the wish of many Democrats to see BUTLER nominated, to show the "morality character" of the Massachusetts Republicans.

THE St. Louis Radical Post Master, FILLEY, has adopted a novel mode of exacting tribute money from his employes. He has made an assessment of five per cent. on their salaries. This arbitrary method of reducing the pay of subordinates, for the pecuniary interest of a Government official, is denounced in unmeasured terms by the newspapers of St. Louis, and many prominent Republicans are condemng FILLEY in the most indignant terms.

THE Milton Chronicle thinks the fool-killer, JESSE HOLMES, ought to have been at the recent grand fancy ball, at the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs, which was fully described by a correspondent of the Richmond Dispatch. The Chronicle says there was "a grand gathering of apes there, fit subjects for the fool-killer's maul."

It is evident that father EVANS holds in utter contempt the follies and foibles of the fashionable world, and is now ready to exclaim, with Pope:

"Whether the charmer sinner it, or saint it,
If folly grow romantic, I must paint it."

THE Christian Advocate of this city, speaks some very kind words concerning the Raleigh NEWS in its editorial columns. Among other things, the Advocate says:

"It ranks with the best dailies in the State. Its editorials are well written, and its news department is filled with the freshest and most interesting events of the day. We bespeak for it a constantly growing circulation."

In the news columns of the Advocate, edited by R. T. GRAY, Esq., we find the following mention of our new dress and enlargement:

DAILY NEWS.—This excellent journal has been enlarged and furnished with a new outfit of printing material. It is well filled with sensible and sparkling editorials, fresh local and general news, latest telegraph gossip and prudent selections. We are glad to learn that the improvement has been called for by increasing patronage of the paper. One of the strongest evidences of the high consideration which the NEWS is held, is that the editorials of its accomplished political Editor, Capt. Sam. T. Williams, are often copied in extenso by the press of the State.

HARRIS, of the Concord Sun, who has been called the Mark Twain of North Carolina, gets off the following, on "three sons of Africa," who lately came to Concord, to "qualify" as School Committeemen of a certain township in Cabarrus county:

"Twas ever thus from Freedom's hour,
They've seen their fondest hopes decay,
When ever they go for place or power,
Some sneaking Rad gets in their way."

It seems that the white Radicals in that township had told these colored men, who desired to run for office, that six Committeemen were to be elected, instead of three, as the law allows; and that if the colored men would vote for three white men, the latter would support three colored men for the position of School Commissioners. The colored men, who acted in good faith, were thus defeated by their white Radical friends.

This is Radicalism—all over.

Supervisor Perry And The State Press.

We have before denounced the report made by Supervisor PERRY to the Revenue Department, an unprovoked and unjust calumny, so far as it charges the Conservative press of North Carolina with aiding and encouraging the violation of the Revenue laws.

We defy the Supervisor to bring forward any evidence to sustain his assertions. If he cannot do so, he has committed a great crime in his wholesale slander of the press of North Carolina.

It may be that our papers, in publishing letters from their correspondents, sometimes contain exaggerations of the acts of Revenue officials; but if the communications which they publish do any one injustice, they are ready to make the retraction after a proper investigation.

It may be possible that the acts of DEAVER and his squad have been colored too highly by the correspondents of the Piedmont Press and the Asheville Expositor, but after a hearing before Judge Clarke, who will not be accused of entertaining any hostility towards the Government, both DEAVER and Lieut. MAST were bound over to Court, on the charge of unlawfully shooting a citizen of McDowell county.

We have heretofore denounced DEAVER as the chief criminal in the outrages charged to have been committed in Western North Carolina, and we believe so still. He has the reputation of being a bold, bad man, cruel, oppressive and vindictive. He has committed so many acts of tyranny and lawlessness in the counties in his jurisdiction, that much indignation exists against him. He is looked upon, not simply by the violators of the law, but by many of the most respectable and estimable citizens of Western North Carolina, as an unworthy and odious official—as one who is a disgrace to the Government and who ought to be removed for malfeasance in office.

For an officer who executes his duties firmly and impartially, the public press entertains respect; but when an officer, in the discharge of his lawful duties, acts officiously, oppressively and vindictively, there is no power which can shield him or ought to shield him from public condemnation and odium.

Mr. Supervisor Perry has gone out of his way to cast reflections upon the Conservative press in his official report to the Government—and his attack is as unprovoked as it is unwarranted by the facts of the case.

IN an editorial a few days since on SOUTHERN ENTERPRISE, we took occasion to say that we believed the time was not far distant when the people of the South would have reliable and well-established insurance companies in their own midst, and would thus be enabled to keep at home, the millions of dollars that are ... sent North in the payment of premiums on policies.

Looking over a late issue of the Spectator, "An American Review of Insurance," published in the city of New York, we notice under the head of "A Strong Southern Company," a highly complimentary notice of the Piedmont and Arlington Life Insurance Company, of Virginia, which it says "is the only Southern life insurance company doing business in New York." The Spectator remarks "that few companies North or South can show so good a business, relatively, of last year."

We are glad to chronicle the fact that one Southern insurance company has extended its operations to the Northern States, and trust that others will follow the example of the Piedmont and Arlington, so that the South may receive back a portion, at least, of the immense amount she is annually pouring into the lap of the wealthy Northern insurance companies.

WHATEVER difference there is between the Washington Chronicle and the Washington Republican is clearly in the favor of the latter. The Republican of Friday defends Col. Mosby against the mean slanders of Brother HARLAN, and praises his gallantry and the bravery of his band. The Republican deserves credit for its generous and well-expressed tribute to the MARION of the second war of independence.—Index and Appeal.

The Washington Republican, the President's organ, in the midst of the Radical darkness in which it is groping, occasionally gives forth a gleam of fairness, which shows that it is not utterly lost to all sense of shame.

Its able exposure of the political trickery and knavery of North Carolina's late misrepresentatives in the United States Senate, POOL and ABBOTT, received our hearty commendation.

We read with pleasure the Republican's defence of Col. MOSBY against the charge in the Chronicle that he was a "chicken thief" and the like, during the war.

Bulwer began the ninth book of the "Parisians" (which it is supposed he intended to publish anonymously) with the following eccentric reference to himself: "There is somewhere in Lord Lytton's writings—writings so numerous that I may be pardoned if I cannot remember where—a critical definition of the difference between dramatic and narrative art of story."

A Colorado justice of the peace sentenced a man to be hung for horse stealing, and the gallows was ready before the official found out he had no jurisdiction.

The sea monster recently captured at Frotress Monroe has escaped.

A nickel mine, lately opened in Westmore Common, Vermont, is expected to be very profitable, as the proportion of gold mixed with the ore is believed to be sufficiently large to pay the costs of working.

A new style of boy's trowsers has been invented in Boston with copper seat, sheet iron knees, rivited down the seams, and water proof pockets to hold broken eggs.

A Western parson delicately began a funeral discourse by alluding to the fact that he had officiated at the hanging of the father of the deceased.

The most expensive and fashionable jewelery in Denmark is said to be made from the bones and scales of fishes. It is more costly than articles of gold.

The tobacco crop of Pittsylvania, Va., has improved wonderfully since the recent rains.

The wife of Mr. Daniel Benvist, of Richmond, Va., has become hopelessly insane.

Hon. John Baldwin, of Va., is rapidly recovering from his recent illness.

BILLOUS.—If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, despondent, have frequent headache, mouth tastes badly in morning, irregular appetite and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only a part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy. Sold by all first-class druggists.

THE DAILY NEWS.

WEDNESDAY.....SEPTEMBER 10, 1873.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Corn is 65 cents per bushel in Newbern.

The cranberry crop is reported light this season.

Newbern has scuppernong grapes at $2 per bushel.

The corn crop in the west is said to be magnificent.

The Wilmington police made 25 arrests last week.

The first bale of new cotton in Mecklenburg county brought 21 cents.

The recent coal discovery in Anson county is creating considerable excitement.

The Newbern papers is discussing the propriety of establishing a banking institution.

Four thousand nine hundred and seventy five dollars came into Wilmington treasury last week.

Hon. Z. B. Vance is announced to deliver the annual address at the Hickory Tavern Fair, October 30th.

Thomas M. Wright, Esq., has been chosen Chairman of the Richmond County Board of Commissioners.

Billy Merrick, one of the alleged murderers of young Carter, has been released from the Wilmington jail on $100 bail.

According to the "Post" three hundred and twenty-seven carts found their way into the Wilmington market last week.

Bryant Hammond, a white boy 17 years of age, was arrested in Wilmington on Saturday for burglary on board of the Steamer North East.

Says the Wilmington "Journal of the 7th inst:

"We are glad to learn that the damages done to the crops on the lowlands of the Cape Fear, between this place and Fayetteville, by the recent high freshets, are not so great as was feared at the time. Still a large per centage of the corn crop in those localities was irretrievably ruined."

John Cowan, Samuel Brown, Jerry Forbes and Henry Bradley, all colored, were arraigned before the Mayor of Wilmington on Saturday on the charge committing an assault on James H. Carraway with an intent to commit highway robbery. Forbes and Bradley were discharged, but Cowan and Brown were held to answer in the bond of $1000 each.

The skeleton of a man was found the other day on the Excelsior Plantation at Rocky Point, New Hanover county, about two feet under the surface of the ground. The remains had evidently been under the ground a large number of years. The bones were rotten and crumbling. An iron buckle was found in the grave. During the past few days at the same place a solid rock was found bearing a wonderful resemblance to the head of an elephant. This stone was found in a bed of marl rock and was blasted out.

Says the Charlotte "Democrat" of the 9th inst:

"A meeting of the citizens of Catawba county has been called to be held at Newton on the 11th instant, to promote, by individual subscription, the extension of the Carolina Central Railway from Lincolnton (via Newton) to Hickory Tavern on the Western N. C. Road. We think the extension will be beneficial to the people along the line all the way from Wilmington to Hickory Tavern, and also to the Railroad Company.

Whatever is done must be done by individual subscriptions. The day is passed when county bonds will do much good towards building a Railroad."

Says the "Spirit of the South," (Rockingham, Richmond county,) of the 6th inst:

"A letter addressed to the "Pastor of Baptist Church," has just been received at this place from Huntsville, Ala., conveying the intelligence that Rev. W. D. Mollit, late of this county, is in jail in that place, and asking help to secure his release. The cause of incarceration of the Reverend gentleman is not stated, but it is hinted that the too great desire to follow the teachings of Brigham Young may have something to do with the abridgement of his liberties. His many friends here, believing that "in jail" is the best place for him, it is not likely that he will receive much assistance from this quarter—unless it would be to secure a change for him from the jail to the penitentiary."

NECESSARY TO LOOK AFTER.—The Washington Star says: "An expert clerk in a New York city bank has detected two points of difference between the genuine and counterfeit $500 notes, which were not mentioned in the Government description, and which are more easily observed than some of those mentioned. In the genuine notes the signature of Mr. Spinner clearly overlies the seal, while in counterfeit the seal has evidently been stamped on after the signature. In the counterfeit the centre star in the cluster around the neck of the Goddess of Liberty is defective, while in the genuine it is perfect. These differences ought to be sufficiently easy of observation to prevent deception in any case."

A duel was fought at New Orleans recently between Mr. Andre L. Roman, of the New Orleans Bee, and C. de la Bretonne, of the Sun. The weapons were small swords. Mr. Roman was twice wounded in the right or sword arm, when Dr. Beard, surgeon, declared that the fight could not go on. Thus terminated the affair.

A Michigan clergyman wrote to a lottery agent: "I do not approve of lotteries; I regard them as no better than gambling schemes. My son bought ticket No. 5 in your drawing, but if he drew anything don't send the money to him—send it to me."

Sergeant Bates is said to have applied for a seat in the Daily Graphic balloon. He wants to bet that he can carry the flag of any nation across the Atlantic ocean without its being insulted.

A Texas paper keeps the commandments in type at the head of its editorial page, and the united Congressional delegation of the State are trying to crush the sheet.

A jealous Saratoga woman recently prevented her husband's attendance at a ball by carrying away all the clothing he owned, and hiding them in a barn three miles away.

FOSSIL DISCOVERIES.—Professor Marsh has discovered no less than twenty-one different species of the horse family, all American. Some of these were no larger than a fox, and others larger than any we now have—with four, three, two and one toe. Professor March has also found fossil mosquitoes, fleas, and bed bugs, but the appearance was such as to show that they existed before man appeared. Besides, he has also discovered fossil bats, monkeys, opossums, foxes, huge turtles, crocodiles, not the poor alligators, but five species of genuine crocodiles, lizards, serpents, "a gigantic pachyderm, nearly as large as an elephant;" a "ruminating hog," a gigantic rhinoceros, two extinct camels, and one carnivorous animal larger than a lion, all exhibited themselves in proof that the New World may claim an ancient and honorable position among the geologic families of the past.

NEVER LEAVE HOME WITHOUT TELLING WHERE YOU ARE GOING.—One Jones, of New Hampshire, left home in August, 1872, two years ago, and has not been heard from. His son died intestate a few months after. If his father was then dead, his estate was his son's, and, at his death descended to his heirs-at-law. If the father survived the son, his estate, on the father's death, went to his legal representatives, who were not the same persons as those of the son. The finding of the father's body in September, 1872, afforded no light. In the absence of evidence the court held, as in cases of contemporaneous loss by shipwreck, that the son, being the younger and stronger, was the survivor. Thus, simply by not leaving word with somebody when or where he might be looked for, the old man has perhaps diverted his property from the heirs who were entitled to succeed it.

An American Tichborne has appeared at Maunch Chunck, Pennsylvania. He claims forty thousand acres of mineral land in Luzerne county. These lands were purchased years ago, and are now owned by tax titles, or insufficient conveyances, it is said. The heir, James Turnbull, was lost for twenty years. He went to sea, was wrecked in the Gulf of Mexico, was picked up and carried to South America, lived for a time on the Isthmus of Panama, was one of the Argonauts of '49 to California, and finally settled in Mazatlan, Mexico. The case came up at the last session of the Court at Williamsport, but was postponed on account of the engagements of counsel, who were members of the late Constitutional Convention then sitting. The suit only involves the little matter of some forty million dollars, for at that sum the lands in dispute are valued.

Some time ago a news item received from Mexico announced that while a Protestant congregation was engaged in worship in their church at Puebla a party of fanatics attacked them, killing two or three of their number, wounding several others, and outraging the women. It is now shown that this report of diabolical outrages was a wicked fabrication. The story reached the ears of Rev. William Butler, a Protestant minister residing in the City of Mexico. He at once investigated the matter and found that there was no truth whatever in the report. He published the result of his investigations in the journals of that city, and sent copy of a paper containing it to the Mexican Consul in San Francisco, Senor Aspiros, who communicated its contents to the press.

One day last week a man by the name of James B. McCauley went into a saloon in Richmond, Va., and asked for credit for drinks. He was refused and afterwards ejected from the premises. On the trial, which ensued before a police magistrate, McCauley was asked if he was drunk at the time, when he swore he had not been sober for 20 years.

In 1859, Lord Dufferin, present Governor-General of Canada, while in Spitzbergen, deposited in a heap of stones a tin case containing a gutta percha envelope, in which was an embossed card bearing an invitation to the finder to take dinner with his Lordship. It was recently found by three Swedish gentlemen.

The Democrats of Iowa will hold no State Convention this year. An address has been issued by the State Committee advising the Democratic voters of the State to support the nominees and platform put forth by the Anti-Monopolists at Des Moines.

A negro man by the name of Hines committed suicide on Friday, at Bower's Hill, by allowing a train on the Seaboard & Roanoke Railroad to run over him.

The colored cook at one of the hotels in the White Mountains is a dancing master during the winter months.

An Iowa man has just been arrested for stealing honey twenty-one years ago.

"Low prices will win," and "Small profits and quick sales" are truisms that have been satisfactorily tested by ZACHARIAS & CO., in the city of Raleigh.

By a strict adherance to these important rules, their business has increased so rapidly that necessity compells them at an early day, to commence the work of enlarging and extending their store room.

In view of this fact, they now offer their large and attractive stock of Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes, Clothing, &c., to the public, REGARDLESS OF COST.

The tickets are divided into ten coupons or parts and have on their back the Scheme with a full explanation of the mode of drawing.

At this concert, which will be the grandest musical display ever witnessed in this country, the unprecedented sum of

The Fourth Gift Concert will be conducted in all its details like the Third, and full particulars may be learned from circulars, which will be sent free from this office to all who apply for them.

Tickets now ready for sale, and all orders accompanied by the money promptly filled. Liberal terms given to those who buy to sell again.

DOUBLE ACTING FORCE PUMPS,

KITCHEN BROS.,

(Successors to CAROLINA PUMP COMPANY, LOCATED IN RALEIGH,)

Are prepared to furnish at short notice the Kitchen Pumps of various sizes with Porcelain Cylinders which can't injure the water. This is a submerged deep well pump, now in use 2½ years without the expense of new packing. We make all sizes, capacity 30 to 150 gallons water per minute, working in every conceivable way and by the use of hose which can be attached in half a minute, these pumps at once become a hand engine of great power, throwing water on the roof of three story buildings, with one hand, and they will stand four to six men safely. We have not heard of one of them being overcome by fire, and yet they have been tested by over fifty fires, saving over $500,000 worth of property. For ordinary use children work them easily if set up by our printed directions, and if so set we warrant them 12 months. Our Double Suction and Force Globe Pumps, also invented by J. L. Kitchen is capable of being used as a Drive well pump and is well adapted to steamers and vessels of any class; one man can throw water on the roof of 3 story buildings. But it has a double ended lever and with four men is a very superior hand engine. The No. 2 Globe Pump is 12 inches in Diameter with 1½ suction and 1¼ discharge pipe and throws 40 to 100 gallons per minute according to speed. The No. 3 Globe, 7 inches in diameter, 1 inch suction and ¾ of an inch of discharge pipe, capable of 25 to 50 gallons per minute. These Globe Pumps we make of cast iron for common use, brass for salt water and block tin for the inside of houses for drinking water, they lift the water 25 feet perpendicular, and you can set it in the house and draw water from springs or wells at great distances.

All kinds of steam and water pipes fitted at short notice; hose, hose-pipes and couplings furnished here, &c.

Send for price list. The entire depth of wells with good references must accompany all orders.

Some few of these pumps have not given satisfaction but in each case it has been attributable to the maker and not the principle of the pump. We are now employing the best mechanics only, and are determined to have none other.

MR. J. L. JOHN L. KITCHEN, Esq—

Dear Sir—I have had one of your Force Pumps in use for two years, and it has proved in every respect as you represented it and I would not be without it for twice the cost of it.

Yours respectfully,
R. A. WATSON.

GREENVILLE, April 19, 1872.

MR. J. L. KITCHEN—

Sir—I have been using one of your pumps driven from my steam engine, for supplying my tanks. I have used it continually for two years, and can confidently recommend it for any purpose where water is required. The pump is so constructed that it will last without getting out of order for years, and I have heard no complaint from any of your many pumps used in this locality for yard well pumps.
WM. S. BROADDUS.

John C. Gorman and W. C. Stronach, of Raleigh, give certificates stating that they have had the pump in use one and two years, are perfectly satisfied with it, and it has not cost them one cent for repairs.

Messrs. Wilson and Waddell, at Wilson's Mills, on the North Carolina Railroad, write that the No. 2 Globe Pump, with 150 feet of 1¼ inch hose, purchased from the Messrs. Kitchen to protect their mills and sash and blind factory against fire, is the best pump they have ever seen. They will buy another as soon as it can be made, for another well. Several parties have examined their pump and will buy others like them. aug 5-D&W1t

"I GO TO PREPARE A PLACE FOR THEE."

Grieve not nor mourn if for a little while
My face is hid from thee.
Have I not told thee? Canst thou not believe?
"Where I am, thou shalt be!"

Where I am thou shalt be. I only go
Before thee to prepare
A place for thee—where thou shalt safely dwell
Beyond all grief and care.

Beyond all grief and care—then, is it hard
For thee to trust my love?
And patient wait, until I bid thee come
Up to thy home above?

Thy home above these clouds—where gleaming stars,
Pouring their radiance down,
Hold in their shining depths the mansions fair,
That I will give my own!

That I will give my own—and thou art mine,
Tho' for a time we part,
Nor power in earth or heaven can break the cords
That bind thee to my heart,

That bind thee to my heart! Thou know'st not now,
But thou shalt know and see
The glories of the place prepared for all
Who will believe in me.

Dost thou believe in me? Then do not fear
Nor doubt my faithful love;
Thy journey will be ended soon—and thou
Shalt rest with me above!

One of the most curious of the professions of Paris is that of restoring old books and manuscripts. There are men there who possess a wonderful and amazing skill in this direction. Sometimes this facility leads some erratic genius to counterfeit old documents, and then it takes a wary and experienced eye to detect the imposture. The late Mr. Philarese Ceasles was repeatedly deceived, and actually bought piecemeal a large collection of letters, none of which were genuine. In a restoration, every strain is erased, parts gnawed by rats or torn off are replaiced, missing leaves are inserted so that no one can discern the interpolation, margins the exact color of the original are given, and the work comes from the fabricator's hands as complete as a perfect copy. Time, patience, and a quick eye furnish the technical art, and experience and training do the rest, and in these things French workmen excel the world.

Balloon betting is current in the sporting circles of New York, but it is evident that the betting men don't believe in the success of the "Graphic" enterprise. The odds are overwhelming against it, and it is hard to find anybody who will risk anything on it. That the balloon will neither cross the ocean nor get half way across, bets are offered nineteen to one; that it will never go a hundred miles away from land, nine to one; that the balloonist will not stay up a single day, five to one; that Wise will never find his westerly current, three to one: that the whole thing will be a fizzle, two to one; that the balloon will burst, bets are even. The 10th instant has been set for the departure of the balloon from the Capitoline Grounds, Brooklyn, provided no untoward event occurs, and sufficient gas is furnished to fill the immense affair.

CURIOUS AND SUPERSTITIOUS MODE OF WORSHIP.—We are informed by a gentleman who some time since was passing Concord church, in Lunenburg county, that his attention was called to that place of worship (free for all denominations) by a great noise and loud singing emaneting from it. On investigation he ascertained that the benches had been removed from the church, and that the colored folks who had assembled there were going round hand in hand singing and shouting. Every one who fell down in the middle of the circle was considered to have found religion. This was kept up for some time, all firmly believing that this was a certain way of securing salvation and serving the Lord.—"Burkeville (Va.) Enterprise."

A MONSTER.—On Wednesday evening last, Mr. Wilson, one of the proprietors of the Hygeia Hotel, at Fortress Monroe, captured a very curious animal or fish, and took it alive into the kitchen. From certain indications it was supposed that the prisoner was hungry, and food was placed before it, when it devoured the following: Seventeen fried fish, a large dish of escalloped oysters, nine soft crabs, eleven hard crabs, and a loaf of bread. This curiosity has been often seen near the shore, and was at last captured as we have stated, by Mr. Wilson. It weighed about 250 pounds, and at a distance would be taken for a veritable descendant of Neptune. Examined closely, it is "very like a whale," being encased in blubber, from which it has been given the name of "Fatty."
